FANS URGED TO GET TO RAIDERS GAME EARLY

Canberrans are being encouraged to leave early to the Raiders home semi-final game on Friday night or use one of ACTION's free shuttle services from interchanges.

"This is the first sell-out game at Canberra Stadium for several years so I urge people to leave early," said Neale Guthrie, General Manager, Territory Venues and Events.

"While ample parking is available at the game and Roads ACT will program the traffic lights as best as possible, clearly the large number of cars travelling to the venue means it will take longer than normal to get a park. The entry gates will also be very busy so I urge people not to leave it to the last minute to arrive at the ground.

"People may also wish to utilise one of the free chartered bus services to and from ACTION bus stations in Tuggeranong, Woden, City, Belconnen and Gungahlin. Extra buses than normal have been put on to get people to and from the game. Return services will depart from the eastern gate 20 minutes after the game.

"For more information on the bus services call 13 17 10 or visit www.action.act.gov.au

"Gates open at 5 pm and the Raiders play in their under 20s semi final against the Cowboys from 5.15 pm so it's a great opportunity to head to the ground early and cheer on our emerging talent."
